AND THEIR EYES WERE OPENED...

By: Fr. Ben Agbo

Just imagine what believers who listened to Jesus and moved about with Jesus began to say after some moments of hardship and disappointments? The most painful was their denial of the resurrection. Just look at their language of reportage : 'Some women of our company amazed us...'

Even the empirical evidence of the empty tomb was discarded by people who were supposed to be disciples of Jesus as 'vision of angels'. Friends, scepticism is no wisdom! Jesus had to address them as 'Foolish men, slow at heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken'. Yes, if there was no prior evidence of scriptural revelation about the resurrection, their doubts could have been reasonable. Perhaps they were mere believers who did not know the scriptures as many are today.

But they now did something that was salutary and laudable. After their encounter with Jesus at the 3rd level, they asked him to stay with them longer. This led to deeper fellowship encounter. Their eyes were now opened during the breaking of bread (the primitive sacrament of the Eucharist) and they confessed : 'Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked with us on the road, while he explained to us the scriptures?'. This is always the effect of every authentic Christian fellowship and exchange of the Word of God. This actually what every mass should be.

They went back to Jerusalem. This is the action we need to take today – going back to fellowship at the Upper room. Fellowship is the staying power of the Christian community – the only network by which we access God. That is the only place where the comforter comes to meet us – the Holy Spirit of power.

Reflection for 3rd Sunday of Easter

What does it take for our eyes to be opened? Every day, a man laboriously walks down Main Street of town. With great difficulty but graceful determination, he places one foot in front of the other, uses a crudely made staff for support, and walks. His pace is slow, but he walks. What does he hope to see? Where does he want to go? What does he find? We all walk through life. The type of "walking" life requires is not always physical but is most assuredly emotional and spiritual. We walk, we look, we encounter, and we seek. How we do these things and what we actually find is determined by what we carry and what we allow ourselves to discover along the way.

If walking is too challenging for us, we may choose to isolate and stay alone. If we are afraid to walk, we may become overly dependent on others providing for us and abandon the journey. We can walk and pay attention only to what is in front of our feet and never notice the immensity of what is happening around us. The road is never the same twice. The journey is always different. What kinds of things do you notice as you walk through life? It seems that the disciples of the Road to Emmaus missed a lot at first. We do as well.

We are called to walk with purpose, to listen, and to notice things that may not at first be apparent. We have to allow the One who has a special claim on our soul to enlighten, instruct, and inspire us. The incarnate mystery of God is pulsating in and through all of creation, where the presence of the Word who became flesh can be discovered. He has been with us all along. How could we have missed Him? Our journey brings us back to the breaking of the bread, and something begins to stir within us. We begin to understand, and things look differently. Bread, body, wine, and blood bring us to see that everyone and everything is a "Eucharistic" encounter. We become what we eat and we see what we eat. We continue to walk. Our eyes are now opened, and we recognize Him. Our hearts burn. Stay with us. Please stay with us.

ARCHDIOCESAN NEWS

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM CORONAVIRUS

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain,
with steadfast faith.

You, Our Refuge and our Hope, know what we need.
We are certain that you will provide, so that,
as you did at Cana of Galilee,
joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will
and to do what Jesus tells us:
He who took our sufferings upon Himself,
and bore our sorrows to bring us,
through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection.

Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas - we who are put to the test
- and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.
